

Tina Malhamé – ‘The best designer on the High Street’

- Multi-award winning designer Tina Malhamé was branded ‘The best designer on the high street’ by the fashion king George Davis, whom she worked alongside for years. She has also worked as an advisor to the EU in Brussels to promote Indian manufacturers.
 - Tina was principal designer for favourite UK brands including Per Una, Monsoon, Next and Laura Ashley. For decades, Tina’s accessible style has featured on the high street.
 - Building on her solid credentials as an established talent, in 2011 Tina launched her own label NoLogo Chic, <http://nologo-chic.co.uk> an online store offering luxury clothing for women in carefully sourced natural fabrics.
- Tina visits Italy, India, Paris, Sri Lanka, Hong Kong, the Philippines and beyond to source the most authentic craftspeople and the finest fabrics for her designs. She has won multiple awards including the Christian Lacroix award for International Linen design.
 - NoLoGo-Chic has produced several keenly priced best sellers in sizes ranging from 8 to 20, including the classic Easy Jersey Dress and the Chic Shift Dress, manufactured by the Italian Lakes.

For further information please contact Melanie Faldo at socal.uk@gmail.com

Couture at High Street Prices